

Linda Boggs

Linda Boggs has been the Director of the Giles County Dept. of Social Services for the past 21 years. She has completed 30 years of services in the human services field. Prior to being appointed to the Workforce Investment Board, she served 11 years on the Private Industry Council. Serving also, on a number of councils and boards involved in the planning and development of community resources, two that currently complement the activities of the WIB includes New River Valley's Partners for Self-Sufficiency and Giles County Housing Construction and Renovation Training Program.